

NEW FACILITIES FOR FREIGHT

The Southern Railway Company completes a Shed and Enlarges Yard.

WILL BE PAVED WITH GRANITE

The September Term of Corporation Court Opens With Large Docket.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., September 2.—The Southern Railway, having completed a shed for the reception of outgoing freight shipments, is now engaged in filling the yard in the rear of its freight warehouse for a purpose which, when completed, will give the system by far the best facilities for handling its heavy freight business that it has ever had in Lynchburg.

All of the old buildings that formerly stood between the main line of the Southern and the Chesapeake and Ohio, above Orange Street, have been demolished, and the yard is being filled in with earth from a large cut which is being made several miles below the city in the new route of the company. When this is completed the company will have two wagon tracks in addition to the tracks on both sides of the new shed and the eastern side of the warehouse. These new wagon tracks will have a capacity for twenty cars. The entire yard between the tracks is to be paved with granite blocks. It is expected that it will be fully sixty days before the improvement will be completed, despite the fact that many large loads of men are at work on it.

On account of to-day being a legal holiday, the September term of the Corporation Court will not convene until tomorrow, when the same grand jury will sit at 10 o'clock. The grand jury will be sworn in to continue its investigation of the fire in the city. This investigation, it will be recalled, was begun at some length in July, and when it was found that it could not be completed before the September term of the court, it was decided to continue it until the next term. It is expected that the grand jury will have all the time necessary to complete its report.

In addition to this, there will be ten or twelve cases which have been sent on from the Police Court during the term for the consideration of the body. The probabilities are that the grand jury will be in session for several days.

THE PRESBYTERIANS.

Montgomery Presbytery to Convene at High Bridge Church.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., September 2.—The Montgomery Presbytery will convene at High Bridge Church, near the National Bridge in Rockingham county, to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock in its semi-annual session, which will last during the remainder of the week.

Coming to the Rev. J. E. Cook, formerly of Clifton Forge, but now a Baltimore, who was the moderator of the last session of the presbytery, having been elected to the body, the opening session will be dedicated by the Rev. Joseph B. Sevier, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of this city. Mr. Sevier was the moderator of the session of the presbytery previous to the past one, having been elected to the body. It is expected that Rev. Arthur H. Carter, the assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and as such in charge of the work at the Bethesda Presbyterian Church in White Hall, W. Va., will be present in person to be received as a member of the body.

The other ministerial members of the presbytery from this city who will be present are the Rev. Dr. R. H. Fleming, of Westminster, and Rev. J. A. McMurtry, of Floyd Street, and Rev. J. R. Sevier, of Third Church.

MONGGOLD KILLED SON.

Believed by Many That Heard Testimony That He Is Insane.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HARRISBURG, VA., September 2.—A coroner's jury, after a lengthy investigation into the murder of Caesar Monggold in Brock's Gap last Friday night, returned a verdict holding the boy's father, Israel Monggold, responsible. Monggold was immediately arraigned before Magistrate Cooper, and waived a preliminary hearing. He was sent to the grand jury, and is now in the Harrisburg Jail. He will be indicted at the September term of the Circuit Court of Rockingham. The murderer is sixty-six years old, and is held to be the father of fifty-two children. Further details of the murder are now coming in. According to evidence introduced at the coroner's inquest, Monggold and his eighteen-year-old son, Caesar, had quarreled over a boy. The father threw a stick at the old man, striking him on the foot. Monggold turned and fired, the bullet entering back of the left shoulder, and falling downward, penetrated the heart. The boy walked into the house and dropped dead, his blood oozing from the body into a room and boiling the door.

The deed was witnessed by three other sons of Monggold, who were the principal witnesses against him at the inquest. A post-mortem examination was made of the body by Dr. Caldwell, of West Virginia. Monggold claims that he fired in the air, and that some unknown persons, hidden in the bushes, shot and killed the boy.

He made several conflicting statements about the crime. He is believed to be insane by many who have seen him.

Dr. Priddy Here.

Dr. A. S. Priddy, formerly a member of the House from Charlotte county, but now a prominent physician of Virginia, is in the city and is at Murphy's. Dr. Priddy is a game fighter, and will render Senator J. E. Bruce all possible assistance in the latter's race for Congress.

HAD NOT WALKED FOR 11 MONTHS

Terrible Sore on Ankle Caused Awful Suffering—Could Not Sleep nor Rest—Physician Said Leg Would Have to Be Amputated.

CURED BY CUTICURA IN SIX WEEKS

"I had a terrible sore on my ankle and had not walked any for eleven months. I tried nearly everything without any benefit and had a doctor, but he didn't seem to do any good. He said I would have to have my leg taken off, and that I would never walk again. I suffered awful and at night I could not sleep at all. I thought there was no rest for me, but as soon as I began to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment it commenced healing nicely. I bathed the ankle with water and Cuticura Soap and then applied Cuticura Ointment to the affected part, and laid a cloth over the sore to hold it in place. After two weeks I could walk around in my room real good, and in six weeks' time my ankle was entirely cured and I was walking around out of doors. I am enjoying perfect health and have gone to work and feel as well as I ever did in my life, so I know that the Cuticura Remedies are the best in the world."

"Cuticura was recommended to me by a lady who had used it when her baby's head was so full of sores he could not lie down. She had to set him up in her arms to sleep." (Signed) Mrs. Mary Dickerson, Louisa, C. H. Va., April 22, 1905.

HAMPDEN-SIDNEY COLLEGE GROWING

Increased Enrollment—Students' Club a New Feature.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HAMPDEN-SIDNEY, VA., September 2.—Prospects of an increased enrollment of students are being steadily fulfilled. The number already enrolled, including the largest school for five years, and other students are being enrolled daily.

With the removal here of Dr. McWhorter of Washington, and Mr. J. M. Hart, of Worcester, Va., every year but one of the "Hill" is completed. The winter term lived for years in Salem, Va., and spent last winter in Washington with his son, Professor Ashton W. McWhorter, who has accepted a position in the University of the South. Professor W. Hart has already received the college, and is getting his house and grounds in order. Professor Smith is scheduled to come the latter part of the week. He is at present in Philadelphia and New York, and has already received the college, and is getting his house and grounds in order. Professor Smith is scheduled to come the latter part of the week. WAS CHOKED TO DEATH

INSTEAD OF DROWNED

John Taylor Under Arrest For Having Killed William Booth.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WEST POINT, VA., September 2.—The colored man whose body was found floating in York River just below West Point August 25 is now thought to have been murdered on the night of the 24th, choked and thrown in the river from Marshall's oyster house dock that night.

The drowned man, William T. Booth, of Gloucester, was seen in company with John Taylor, of Gloucester, about 11 o'clock at night about the barroom, and one or both, had been drinking. There is nothing known of any feud or ill-feeling between the two.

John Taylor is from Gloucester, and upon suspicion was arrested and brought Sunday night late to West Point, where he awaits trial Tuesday.

Commonwealth's Attorney Lewis is at Gloucester, and will be in session. It will be remembered that the boat found on the murdered man stopped at 11:25 o'clock.

STANTON, VA., September 2.—Colonel Joe Lane Stern this afternoon held the annual State inspection of the West Augusta Guards and Stanton Rifles, and both companies showed good condition and made a fine appearance.

Liverpool has decided to have a grand celebration on August 29th next, year of the 20th anniversary of the grant of a charter of incorporation to the city by King John.

WORK OF BADEN-POWELL

BUST OF CAPTAIN JOHN SMITH, PRESENTED TO THE STATE OF VIRGINIA BY A FAMOUS ENGLISH SOLDIER.

JAMESTOWN HERO SHOWN IN MARBLE

Bust of British Colonial Soldier to Appear in Exposition Gallery.

THE GIFT OF BADEN POWELL

Englishman Who Won Laurels in Transvaal Also Sculptor of Handsome Work of Art.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., September 2.—A bust of Captain John Smith, executed by General Baden-Powell, the famous English soldier, the hero of Mafeking, has been presented by the sculptor to the State of Virginia, and has recently arrived at Richmond, where it will be placed permanently in the State Capitol. The bust comes to Virginia as a most interesting and appropriate gift just at this time, when preparations are in progress for the Jamestown Tercentennial Exposition of 1907, which will commemorate the first permanent English settlement in America, brought about through the courage and audacity of John Smith as a colonist.

Donor Comes of John Smith

Stock.

General Baden-Powell, who made the bust, comes from the same stock as the noblest of our countrymen, his family being the direct descendants of a brother of the captain.

His ability as a sculptor has long been demonstrated by the favorable comment unanimously given by art critics, and his latest work, made for the purchase by collectors, is a bust of the English soldier, the hero of Mafeking, who made the bust, comes from the same stock as the noblest of our countrymen, his family being the direct descendants of a brother of the captain.

At a private exhibit in London last December, General Baden-Powell, a Virginia, and a close friend of the general, presented the bust to the State of Virginia, and it will be placed permanently in the State Capitol.

Added to Historical Exhibit.

General Baden-Powell, who made the bust, comes from the same stock as the noblest of our countrymen, his family being the direct descendants of a brother of the captain.

The Jamestown Tercentennial Exposition, to be held on the shores of Hampton Roads in 1907, has aroused a national interest in the early colonial history of this country, and especially in life of the first English settlement on Jamestown Island, in which Captain John Smith took such an active and prominent part.

The gift of Baden-Powell, coming at this time, is especially appreciated by the State, as it will surely help to bring the first English settlement to the attention of the "old Dominion" at the Tercentennial.

LAWLESS NEGROES IN STAFFORD COUNTY

Form a Wall Around a Fugitive and Threaten Officer.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., September 2.—Charles Williams, a negro, of Stafford county, was discovered here some time ago, and was arrested, but escaped while being taken to jail, and went to Washington. A warrant was issued for his arrest, and put in the hands of Constable J. E. Armstrong, of Stafford. Constable J. E. Armstrong, of Stafford, was attending a religious meeting near White Oak, in Stafford county. He went there yesterday with George E. James, of this city, to arrest Williams. They saw Williams seated in a wagon. Armstrong told him he was under arrest. Williams tried to escape, but was held by Armstrong, while James attempted to put the handcuffs on him. The scuffle attracted a number of negroes, who swarmed around. They took the handcuffs from James, and drove him away. By this time Williams had released himself, and the negroes prevented Armstrong from shooting at him or following him by forming a solid wall around him. They threatened Armstrong, but

FOR LIMITED DIVORCE.

Mrs. Yager Alleges That Her Husband Deserted Her.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

HARRISBURG, VA., September 2.—A session was created by the county today, when a suit for a limited divorce was filed in the Circuit Court of Rockingham by Mrs. Otto Jay Yager against Otto Yager, one of the most prominent merchants in this section. The grounds for the suit are desertion.

The papers were filed through Attorney Schaefer, of Staunton, against Mrs. Yager. It is alleged that Mr. Yager willfully deserted his wife last May, and that since that time he has not been seen or communicated with by her. Mrs. Yager is a daughter of Dr. J. B. Webb, one of the best-known citizens of the county.

She gained considerable notoriety several years ago by her mysterious disappearance from her home. She was located after a long search in Westchester, Pa. She has been in a sanitarium several times and during the past winter was at the Western State Hospital, Staunton. Mr. Yager is a man of considerable means, and enjoys an unblemished reputation. Mr. and Mrs. Yager are now both living in the vicinity of Cross Keys.

TERRIFIC THUNDER STORM IN BRISTOL

Dwelling Burned and Inmates Make Narrow Escape.

Church Damaged.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BRISTOL, TENN., September 2.—A thunderstorm of unprecedented violence swept over this city and section this morning. Probably a score of buildings were struck by lightning. A house in West Bristol was burned to the ground with its contents. Mrs. John Burnett, who occupied the house, with her two children and her father, were all stunned and recovered consciousness just in time to escape from the building.

The people of the First Presbyterian Church were struck, the weather-vane torn down and part of the spire knocked off, while an electric chandelier in the body of the church was torn out and thrown to the floor, smashing it to fragments.

The Western Idea In Advertising—and Its Progress

Ten years ago more than 60 per cent of American Advertising originated within 10 miles of Park Row, New York. Today 60 per cent of American Advertising comes from the Chicago territory.

THE development of commercial supremacy in The West is the natural result of the development of western advertising—commercial aggressiveness—advertising activity.

The Western Spirit—Aggressiveness—backed by facts has built up in Chicago the largest advertising agency in America—Lord & Thomas.

We are willing to take our share of credit for the development of Western Advertisers.

Our business has grown because we have made the businesses of our clients grow.

And because we did our share in building up small Western Advertisers—Eastern Advertisers (great and small) have come to us until today we have an annual business of $4,000,000 and 700 clients (small and large) from all over the country.

Fortunately our volume of business enables us to retain more $5,000, $10,000 and $20,000-a-year brains for the preparation of advertising campaigns than any other three advertising organizations in the country combined.

Our volume of business has also given us the most valuable advertising experience which we compile into our Record of Results.

This Record constitutes the Only Tangible Basis upon which to build an Advertising Campaign with the most reasonable assurance of success.

The Lord & Thomas Record of Results is a tabulation of actual results—inquiries and sales known positively to have been produced by scores of classifications of selling plans and copy, advertising hundreds of different commodities in all good newspapers and other good media.

We are fortunate in being located in Chicago, because here the Western Spirit is fully in evidence. And here we are more closely in touch with every part of the country than we would be in any other city in the United States. The center of population is within 100 miles of Chicago and it is thus the logical—the actual center of publicity.

We are ready to focus the Spirit of The West—the Brains—the Record of Results and the Organization at our command upon Your Proposition.

One of our representatives is in your city looking after the interests of some of our present clients every few days. That is why we are advertising in this newspaper—to you—NOW.

A letter, signifying that you will grant us an interview in your office, will not obligate you in any way.

We are issuing a series of small books (cloth bound) covering advertising in all its phases, which we send free to interested advertisers.

REPUBLICAN SPLIT IN THE SIXTH

Strong Opposition to the Endorsement of Sloop in the Convention.

HEERMANS IS THE NOMINEE

Ex-Postmaster Hoge Declared Sloop Lied to Him and Was Drunk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROANOKE, VA., September 2.—The Republican convention of the Sixth District met here today in the Hastings Courtroom, and nominated C. A. Heermans, of Montgomery county, for Congress.

Allen T. Harless, of Montgomery District, chairman, who called the convention to order, was made permanent chairman, and George H. Hoge, of Roanoke, secretary. Only sixty delegates were present, and but for the Roanoke Republican making an attack on Sloop it would have been very dull.

It was started by the Committee on Resolutions bringing in a resolution endorsing Congressman and Chairman Sloop. Ex-Postmaster Hoge declared that to endorse the Sloops would be like handing a million to a thief.

It was started by the Committee on Resolutions bringing in a resolution endorsing Congressman and Chairman Sloop. Ex-Postmaster Hoge declared that to endorse the Sloops would be like handing a million to a thief.

The resolution was finally adopted by a vote of 44 to 2. Roanoke and Campbell not voting.

S. E. Price, of Montgomery, nominated Heermans, and Calley, of Halifax, seconded the nomination. Neither made speeches.

Heermans declared that he was going to be elected, and intimated that he was going on a still hunt.

The following members of State Committee were elected: J. E. Saunders, Roanoke; Harry A. B. Hammer, Charlotte; S. G. Guy, Bedford; W. I. Edwards, Lynchburg; J. A. Parrack, Roanoke.

Republicans in Scott.

A LIVE DAY IN THE POLICE COURT

Entire Variety Troop Arrested by a Policeman and Arraigned for Disorderly Conduct.

SALESMAN HELD FOR LARCENY

Schooner With Her Mast Broken Off Arrives in Port Safely.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROANOKE, VA., September 2.—All records for the number of cases in the Norfolk Police Court were broken today. One hundred and nineteen of them were on the docket when Justice Simmons opened the court this morning, representing the violence of the Police Department for Saturday and Sunday.

Among the accused were seventeen attaches of Barton's Variety Theatre. These were charged with disorderly conduct, all pitched Sunday by Officer Simpson. There was a light in the theatre, and Simpson went in to see about it. No one would tell who the theatre parties were, so Simpson pulled the parties, including James Barton, proprietor, himself. Others included actors, actresses, bartenders and roustabouts.

It developed in court this morning that J. D. Foster, barkeeper, and J. L. Lawson, a stage employee, were the fishers, and all others were discharged.

J. H. Knight, a salesman, wanted in Harrisburg, Pa., for the larceny of $75, was ordered held for the Pennsylvania authorities.

The other cases on the docket represented drunks, disorderlies, petty thieves and public nuisances.

The schooner R. T. Rundlett, Captain J. W. Fountain, which was seen with masts gone about twenty miles north of Cape Hatteras Friday morning by Captain Patterson, master of the British steamer Saltwell, was towed into this harbor today by a tug.

The schooner was sailing toward Norfolk under a small jury foremast and a tug when picked up. The three masts were broken off even with the deck, and her jib-boom and starboard anchor were missing.
